HOME & FAMILY

Morning in the City

I

With the first light of the morning, people begin their daily and work routines. Some of them leave home early for work, while others stay at home or work from home. These routines often look quite similar for most people although each day is a new start.

II

Across the street, Eric opens his pharmacy early in the morning. He prepares prescriptions, gives advice about medicines, and answers patients' questions during the day. His job needs attention because it is directly related to people's health. He thinks helping people stay healthy makes his job meaningful.

III

Jack starts his day by planning new content on his computer. He usually works from home and spends time online. He records videos, edits them carefully, and shares them on social media platforms. He answers his followers' questions and looks for new ideas online. He says, "Creating content makes me creative and inspires others."

IV

At the corner of the street, Jane drinks her coffee quickly and leaves for the law office. Her clients are waiting for her to solve their problems. She says, "Every morning is a new challenge, but it is motivating for me to defend people's rights."

V

In a small apartment close by, the Frank family enjoys breakfast together before leaving home. Meanwhile, Ms Frank, a scientist, checks her work emails about some experiments. Mr Frank, an architect, looks at an architecture magazine about new buildings and city projects. Their son, Mike, talks about school and his plans for the day. After breakfast, everyone leaves the house: Ms Frank goes to the lab, Mr Frank goes to the office, and Mike goes to school. Each family member has a different routine, but they all start the day together.

Neighbourhood I: Green Valley 3.8/5

Sarah L.: I enjoy walking near the hills every morning. Neighbours are polite, but there aren't many shops nearby. You need a car for most things.

Mark T.: Very calm and safe, but sometimes too quiet. Public transport is limited.

Neighbourhood II: Sunny Town 4.6/5

Emma P.: The streets are always well-kept, and people are kind and sociable. The supermarket is only a 5-minute walk from most homes.

Leo M.: A quiet area. Perfect for families. But the bus line is a bit slow on weekends.

Neighbourhood III: Central Avenue 4.2/5

Anna W.: The riverside view is amazing! There are many cafés next to the river, but it can get noisy at night, especially in summer.

Tom G.: Great place for young people. Lots of social areas. Noise is the only problem.

Neighbourhood IV: City Centre 3.4/5

Dana S.: Very close to the city centre. You can walk everywhere. However, the traffic is heavy, and the area crowded during the day.

Peter H.: Good for shopping and work, but not the best choice if you want a quiet life.
